Easiest Bokeh Technique Ever!

I've used Pear Pizzazz and Pool Party to start with. Simply use daubers or Stampin' Sponges and sponge in circular motion. For the next step I had previously made a bokeh mask from a piece of Window Sheet (acetate) and punched circles from it 1 1/2", 1" and 3/4". The circles don't have to be exactly this size. As long as they are close to it, it won't matter. Use Whisper White Craft Pigment Ink and sponge or pounce it through the circles in the mask. The pouncing motion gives a deeper colour whilst the sponging motion gives a lighter colour.

Craft ink takes AGES to dry so help it along a little with a heat gun or leave it a few hours. Please note that even with the heat gun it will not dry completely so you will have to be careful handling your inked area. Using Dauber only, apply a few more white Craft ink spots and then (with another dauber) apply a few Soft Sky ink spots. Again, dry this. Stamp sentiment of your choice. I've used a stamp from the Water Color Wishes stamp set. I just love the font on this. I did use Black Memento ink to stamp this however as my White Craft Ink was still damp it turned the Black Memento ink, blue!

Using White Satin Ribbon (2 1/2 times width of Mat card) and Soft Sky Blendability Marker (brush end) gently apply colour to the ribbon (both sides). This will dry perfectly. Create a faux box by tying the middle of the ribbon around your middle finger. Adhere to back of Mat card. Layer your Bokeh piece on to Basic Black card and mount on to Mat card with Dimensionals. Cut your bow at a diagonal angle, add 3 pearls and you are finished.

Enjoy! :)

PS. This colour combination actually will look just as well mounted on to Pear Pizzazz or Old Olive Cardstock.
